PREFACE

This work has been accomplished against great odds, having to rely solely on old family letters, letters of inquiry and documents in the Los Angeles Public Library. It has prospered because it is a work of love, - love of our ancestors and love for those who will use this book.

Grateful acknowledgement is hereby made for certain data set forth in the book - "Representative Men and Old Families of Rhode Island", published in 1908, on the Munro and Brown lines of our family. The data on the early Clark, Greenough, and Stone lines was compiled by the writer's distant cousin, Mary Munroe, and was given by her to Mrs. Harriet F. Parker for the "Bronsdon-Box Families", at the time Miss Mary Munroe sent this same data to the writer's mother. This data is therefore identical in this present work, and in Mrs. Parker's book, down to the year 1902, the date of Mrs. Parker's "Bronsdon-Box Families", publication, excepting Mary Greenough branch which she did not follow down.

PART II

The Cuttings (Cottings) of Acton, Mass.

In September of 1890 Susan Gould Brown, then residing at Berkley, Va. wrote Mr. J. M. Comstock of Dartmouth College as follows: "My brother William A. Cotting has sent me your letter as well as his answer in regard to the biography of our father Dr. J. R. Cotting. Much that he wrote you will be of no consequence no doubt, but I beg to correct one statement made through ignorance of our father's early history. Our grandfather was William Cutting and my father wrote his name Cutting until in searching among old family papers he ascertained that the original name was Cotting. From that time he adopted the old manner of spelling his name."

WILLIAM CUTTING, SR. was born about 1700 and either he or an earlier ancestor came to Mass. from San Domingo (Santo Domingo) where presumably he had emigrated from England. William Cutting m. Sarah who was born in 1708 d. Acton, Mass. 12/25/1805. William d. 5/29/1784, at Acton.
